Institute for Graphics and Imaging to Exhibit at PRINT 09

Pewaukee, Wisconsin—August 2009—The Institute for Graphics and Imaging (IGI)—an education and training organization funded by and dedicated to the printing and graphic arts industry—will exhibit in booth 6448 at PRINT 09 in Chicago, September 11-16, 2009. IGI personnel will be available to discuss the organization’s many offerings, as well as other services available to the printing industry.

Discussing the IGI PRINT 09 presence, IGI Executive Director Ron Dahl commented: “At PRINT 09, IGI personnel will be available to discuss the many opportunities available at our facilities in suburban Milwaukee, Wisconsin. In addition, we will be describing IGI facilities available for regional trade shows, and office space is available for short-term rental by industry suppliers and others. We see PRINT 09 as an excellent opportunity to personally get to know the printers, creative professionals and suppliers that we serve.”

The Institute for Graphics and Imaging provides education and training in the graphic design, printing, and related industries. Supported by a vast network of industry suppliers, printers, publishers, and governmental agencies, IGI operates on the campus of the Waukesha County Technical College in suburban Milwaukee. IGI facilities, which include computer classrooms and access to the latest printing equipment, are available for sales events and corporate training courses. For additional information go to www.igi.org or call 262-695-6260.
