For Immediate Release

Institute for Graphics and Imaging Half-Day Seminar to Focus on Acrobat 9

Pewaukee, Wisconsin—August 2009—The Institute for Graphics and Imaging (IGI)—an education and training organization funded by and dedicated to the printing and graphic arts industry—has announced a half-day training seminar on Adobe® Acrobat 9®. The session will be held on October 15, 2009, and will be conducted by James Wamser, Senior Training Specialist at Sells Printing Company. Wamser is an Adobe Certified Instructor Print Specialist, with more than 16 years experience in the graphic arts. The course will be directed at those who need an introduction to Acrobat 9 and is appropriate for prepress operators, production personnel, customer service representatives, production managers, print buyers, graphic designers, and desktop publishers. Tuition for the seminar is $99. Course details and registration forms may be found at www.igi.org/events\_calendar/.

Announcing the new course, IGI Executive Director Ron Dahl commented: “IGI is pleased that James Wamser is available to teach this course on Acrobat 9. He is an accomplished trainer who operates daily in a production environment.”

The Institute for Graphics and Imaging provides education and training in the graphic design, printing, and related industries. Supported by a vast network of industry suppliers, printers, publishers, and governmental agencies, IGI operates on the campus of the Waukesha County Technical College in suburban Milwaukee. IGI facilities, which include computer classrooms and access to the latest printing equipment, are available for sales events and corporate training courses. For additional information go to www.igi.org or call 262-695-6260.
